AN

INDEX

TO THE

PRINCIPAL MATTERS

IN THIS VOLUME.

[For Digest of the Reports, see p. 451.]

ANECDOTE—
Sir Edward Sugden at the lunatic asylum, 48.

ARTICLES—
On the revision of 1830—The innovations of 1847 and 1848, 49.
On the statute of frauds—Part performance, 98, 145.
On the marriage with wife's sister, 195.
On Sir Matthew Hale and the statute of frauds, 195.
On alimentary annuities, 217.
On confidential communications, 257.
On contract—Effect of non-delivery of letter when sent by post, 434.

BENCH AND BAR—Sketches of
The late Chancellor Kent, 1.
The late Mr. Justice Cushman, 337.

CRIMINAL LAW—(Points)
Embezzlement, 192.
Murder, 339.
Stealing money in letters, 295.
Stealing post letters, 296.
False Pretence, ib.
Forgery of bill of exchange, ib.
Cheque, 296.
Endorsement of bill.
Illegitimate child–Presumption of name, 424.

DIGEST OF CASES DECIDED IN THE SUPREME COURT—
General Term, May, 159.
Do. do. do. 211.

OBITUARY—Jesse Oakley, Esq., 366.

PRACTICAL POINTS—Interest of a party affecting the decision of the cause, 47.
Libel—Plea of Justification—Want of particularity, 147.
Guarantee—Ambiguity—Parol evidence, 320.
Malicious prosecution—evidence, 366.
Evidence—Notice of set-off, ib.

REMARKABLE TRIAL—
Caspar Frisch, 297.

REVIEW—Barbour's Chancery Reports, Vol. 1, 14.
Sandford's Reports, (Equity,) Vol. III.. 197.
Lockwood's Analysis of Cases revised in the Court of Errors, 262.